Shin Kong Life Insurance To See Capital Uplift After Parent's Share Issue

July 23, 2021

Taiwan Ratings Corp. said today that a planned share issuance by Shin Kong Financial Holding Co. Ltd. group will help to strengthen the capitalization of its flagship unit, Shin Kong Life Insurance Co. Ltd. (twAA-/Negative/--).

Taiwan-based Shin Kong group's recently announced plan will give only a slight boost to the group's capitalization. The group plans to raise new Taiwan dollar (NT$) 8.2 billion by issuing new common shares and use the proceeds to strengthen Shin Kong Life's capitalization. We do not expect the plan to significantly improve the life insurer's stand-alone credit profile, given that the capital injection will account for just 2.4% of the insurer's total adjusted capital as of fiscal 2020. Shin Kong Life plays a dominant role in the group credit profile; however, we view the insurer's proactive capital management and slower growth plans as the key factors underpinning its capital and earnings. Therefore, we believe the capital plan has no impact on our ratings or outlook on the insurer or other key group entities.
